

Human-Animal Interactions Symposium

28th of June 2024

09:00-17:00

University of Veterinary Medicine Vienna

Lecture Hall B, Building FA

Time	Topic
08:30	Door opening
09:00	Welcoming talk
09:15	Guest speaker: Sophie Veigl
10:20	Coffee break
10:50	Taking a break – salivary cortisol, heart rate variability and behaviour in guide dogs after working
11:15	Effect of urbanization on free-ranging wolves in Italy
11:40	Self-recognition of their own body as a physical obstacle in Goffin's cockatoos
12:05	Social transfer of foraging information
12:30	Lunch break
13:30	Poster session
14:30	Curing cancer in dogs: Development and in-vitro testing of caninized checkpoint inhibitors for canine cancer immunotherapy
14:55	Pro-choice without a voice? - Extending arguments from debates on female reproductive autonomy to non-human animals in commercial farming
15:20	Resisting being made voiceless: Reflecting resistance as a form of animal agency to identify disenfranchisement as a moral problem in animal research
15:45	Coffee break
16:10	Are brachycephalic dogs special or the people who like them?
16:35	Stress at work and severity of allergy symptoms: a questionnaire study
16:50	Closing

Register here

